Dear Parents and Carers

A busy week again as our schools gear up for their end of term concerts and celebrations. I was invited to a Y1 Ball this week – children at Daubeney dressed in their finery and practising their ballroom dancing! We also had a visit from the Show & Tell Photography Team who did some filming of our Daubeney Y6's about their images, which will promote entries for the national exhibition #MyPhotoMyFeeling which opens next month. This is open to all children, so feel free to check out the photographymovement.com for more details. I will share the film with you once I receive it. Sebright had a very successful visit from our School Improvement Partner Stephen Hall who was very impressed with the improvements and provision at the school. Well done all.

Last week was Anti-Bullying Week across the country and the theme was One Kind Word. Each school has undertaken some wonderful learning around this theme, and kindness has been very evident amongst the children. Check out our website and social media for some glimpses into these.

I would like to congratulate Lauriston for achieving the Bronze Educate and Celebrate award. We are very proud of the hard work towards this and by Miss Wilson in pulling everything together to promote LGBT+ inclusion throughout the school.

Our Chair of Governors, Will Emms, and I have been busy recruiting some new Governors to our Local School Committees and Full Governing Board. Our aim is to diversify and broaden our Governor skills which will add capacity to our already excellent members. More on this in the next few weeks.

Next week we have our parent consultation meetings which are an important opportunity for you to chat to your child's class teacher about their successes and next steps for learning. Please make every effort to make an appointment.

December is coming and there are all sorts of magnificent things ahead.

Stay warm and safe.

Yours sincerely,
